LISTS NEW OPERAS.

Metropolitan Company to Present Three by Giacomo Puccini.

NEW YORK, September 2.-Three new operas by Giacomo Puccini, each in one act, will be produced by the Metropolitan Opera Company here in December, according to an announcement by Giulio Gatti-Casazza, general manager, who added that the operatic season would open November

The new operas, said to be in no way similar to one another, dramatically or musically, are: "Il Tabarro." libretto by Giuseppe Adami, and "Suor Angelica" and "Gianno Schichi," librettos both by Gioacchino Forzano. Puccini will probably be unable to attend the premiere, according to Mr. Gatti-Casazza.

-TO RAILROAD MEN

Won't Mix With Government Ownership, Director General McAdoo Declares.

Director General McAdoo has told all railroad men that their business is to run the various roads under the management of the railroad administration and that politics and business will not mix. Therefore, officials and employers of these railroads are told they must keep out of politics. In a formal statement to the railroad men the director general has declared that in view of the coming state and federal elections it is imperative that their conduct be so scrupulously guarded there can be no charge, direct or indirect, of railroad
